

LECQ CLAY TARGET CLUB

The Lecq clay target shooting ground has been in existence at Lecq Farm since 1957. Lecq Clay Target Club was formed by Mike & Janet Smith and Jack & Kathy Hanby in 2006 under a written constitution to promote and encourage the sport of clay target shooting. The Club assets are privately owned but the facilities are open to subscribing members and corporate events under permission and supervision by the Owners. The Club is an associate member of the Clay Pigeon Shooting Association (CPSA), has fully qualified CPSA safety officers and club coaches and has CPSA approved insurance cover.

The Club is open on Saturday afternoons for skeet, sport trap, trap and DTL from 2 to 5 and Sunday mornings for sporting, last entry 10.30 and skeet. Visitors are welcome please contact us, details at the bottom the page, for alternative times or corporate bookings.

Directions - From St Ouens parish hall take B56 towards Grosnez/Leoville, take first right turn after the Blue Soleille Café and follow signs to Lecq Farm/Clay Shoot – left, right and left (map ref C5). Go through Lecq Farm up slope towards cliff path and range is on right through the gate, follow signs past the club house for parking in field on right.

Correspondence Address:

The Secretary, Attara Cottage, La Rue a Don, Grouville, Jersey C.I. JE3 9GA
Tel 01534 855913, Mobile 07797 717940 e-mail hanby@jerseymail.co.uk